

Home Institution's Endorsement of English Language Proficiency

- For UG virtual study abroad applicants from HKUST exchange partners

English is the language of instruction and course assessment at HKUST. Students enrolling into HKUST courses must possess a level of English language proficiency necessary for academic studies, including participation in class activities, discussions, presentations, group projects, as well as course assessment.

Applicants whose first language is not English and/or studying in institutions where the primary medium of instruction is not English are expected to meet or possess proficiency equivalent to one of the following English language requirements. Applicants should upload the relevant test results into their HKUST applications. Where applicants do not possess these test results, the applicant's home institution should complete and sign this form to endorse the applicant's English language proficiency. Applicants should then upload the signed form to their HKUST applications.

- IELTS overall band 6.0;
- TOEFL paper-based test (PBT) 550;
- TOEFL computer-based test (CBT) 213;
- TOEFL internet-based test (iBT) 80
